

VIRTUAL VOLUNTEERISM STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Virtual Volunteerism - Student Engagement: Advocacy through Social Media by Students

- Any posts or virtual involvement in Hunger Action Month will qualify for “volunteer hours”

GOALS OF VIRTUAL VOLUNTEERISM

- Promote social awareness
- Encourage social change
- Promote equality, justice, and fairness

REQUIREMENTS

1. Platforms: Instagram (IG) or Facebook (FB)
2. Share Content
 - Graphics and verbiage provided by SHFB
 - Or original content related to hunger awareness or Hunger Action Month (HAM)
3. Must follow SHFB @secondharvestfoodbankoc and allow SHFB to follow you back, if your account(s) are private on any or all platforms
 - www.instagram.com/secondharvestfoodbankoc
 - www.facebook.com/secondharvestfoodbankoc
4. Must use at least 2 of the following approved hashtags per post/story and tag @secondharvestfoodbankoc in the post or story:
 - #WeFeedOC
 - #EveryActionCounts
 - #HungerActionMonth
 - #StudentsFeedOC
5. Students MUST track their posts and hours per the Log Sheet(s) below and include descriptions of images, stories, and/or video posted
6. All images, stories, and/or videos posted must remain active on your account feed for at least 24 hours
 - SHFB may audit and review all posted images, stories, and/or videos posted on behalf of or related to SHFB
 - SHFB may also repost, share, use, tag, and/or reference any Virtual Volunteerism posts

Remember: You are representing SHFB!

Be creative and have fun, but if original stories and/or images are used, be sure they are appropriate.

Should SHFB find anything inappropriate that has the potential to harm the SHFB name and/or brand, you will be asked to remove it immediately and unlink any SHFB affiliation. You may also be subject to suspension from participating in this and/or future SHFB (virtual) volunteer opportunities.

VIRTUAL VOLUNTEERISM STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

TO RECEIVE CREDIT

- Submissions must be emailed from the Student (not a parent or guardian) to: volunteer@feedoc.org by Wednesday 9/30/20 by 2:00pm PT with the subject titled: "Virtual Volunteerism - Student Engagement: [Your Name]" in order to be valid for community service credit—no exceptions. Credit will not be given for incomplete forms, posts, or missing cover letters (see below).

Items to submit in order to receive credit:

1. Completed Virtual Volunteerism Student Engagement Log
2. Screenshots of all posts attached to email
3. A Cover Letter (minimum of 250 words) explaining why you are/were interested in spreading awareness about food-insecurity and what this campaign meant to you.
 - Proper formatting and grammar required.

Minors should not create accounts on VolunteerHub [<https://feedoc.volunteerhub.com/>] to log Volunteer hours and/or events. Submissions for school or work community service hours will only be accepted per this log. All hours are VOID if being used to fulfill Court Ordered (or related, i.e. probation or juvenile/youth diversion programs, etc.) Community Service.

Students will receive an email from SHFB by end of business day, Friday, October 30, 2020 confirming their earned community service hours.

If you do not have social media (Instagram or Facebook) or choose not to participate using these platforms, we will have other opportunities for you to get involved and acquire Volunteer Service Hours in the near future – so be on the lookout and stay tuned!
